

I am strongly in favor of RM-10867 as proposed and endorsed by the ARRL. This encourages new entry level operators by providing an simplified entry level Novice and eliminating the morse code requirement. This hobby is sorely in need of new amateurs to provide the needed public service in the future.